

ALLEY Twenty Six

Alley Twenty Six Cocktail Syrups was born out of the James Beard Outstanding Bar Program Finalist Alley Twenty Six Restaurant and Bar - the first nominee ever from North Carolina. Launched in 2015 with a single product - tonic syrup - the brand catered to mainly other bars and restaurants. During the pandemic, founder Shannon Healy and his team expanded the line to include a variety of cocktail syrups flavors and began retailing to loyal customers from the restaurant. Alley Twenty Six Cocktail Syrups is rooted in the philosophy that the best ingredients make the best cocktails whether you are drinking at your favorite bar or at home.
