

I grew up loving spicy foods and searched for a hot sauce with the perfect combination of heat and flavor. I remember being a kid, watching football at sports bars with my brother and dad, eating wings and sampling hot sauce, but always craving more flavor and more heat from Mild to Medium to Hot and beyond!

Good times and great food have been my passion for years, but as I got older I realized that there was something lacking in most hot sauces I tried: they were barely hot enough to get my endorphins going or were all heat and devoid of flavor.

So, I made it my mission to create the sauce I had been craving. The result is FIREWALKER Hot Sauce.
