

Meet Cody

After growing up in Pennsylvania, Cody spent the early days of his career in the Marine Corps, then moved on to the corporate sector. Having always dreamed of owning his own business, he is grateful for the opportunity to now be a co-owner of Mrs. Pumpkin's. He and his wife have one daughter together and a loyal family dog.

Meet McFall

McFall grew up in Greenville, South Carolina, then had the opportunity to travel the world in the Marine Corps. After settling down in Winston-Salem, he spent several years working in food and beverage before making the decision to get into the local business world with Cody. He has been married to his wife Sarah for nine years and they have three children together.

